Overall remarks of the Auditor : Department is well known for its contributions in the field of plant taxonomy and the studies and research in this area is its strength . So more attention will be given to develop different areas of plant taxonomy . Department have adequate ,qualified faculty members and students .More attention will be given to the specific areas such as consultancy, patent ,innovative practices,publication of more papers with impact factor and more external funding in the form of projects can transform the Department to a centre of excellence. Filling the remaining faculty positions also give added advantages to the overall activities.
