

Action Report – AAA

(draft)

1. The department has revised the syllabus in OBE format with clear objectives and outcomes. Advanced topics/subjects in the thrust area has been identified and accommodated to acquaint the students with deep knowledge. Among others, Courses like Forensic Accounting and Fraud Management, Advanced Management Accounting, Organization Behavior, Cost Management, Project Finance, Corporate Governance and Business Ethics, Corporate Accounting and Disclosures, Risk Management and Derivatives were either added or modified to give students an exposure to the innovations around the globe.
2. Collaboration with the ULCCSL was offered to the students of the department in “Marketing Capacity” with respect to one of their recent initiative. Initial discussions were already done and final discussions will be done shortly to finalize on documentation like MoU.
3. NET coaching classes for the aspirants has been organized by the department at regular interval with proper syllabus coverage. Services of the research scholars, mphil scholars, faculty members were used for the same.
4. Programmes like ASEND, placement initiatives, which, the department consider as its best practices has been charted well in advance
5. Teachers have already created their LMS profiles and a part of the forthcoming semester will be run through the same. framework has been already set

Professor & Head
Department of Commerce and Management Studies